

THE ALEXANDER SCHAEFFER FARM

FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR EVENT

Schaefferstown Pennsylvania

Historic Alexander Schaeffer Farm and the host unit, The Kittatinny Associators, wish to invite your unit to a new and exciting F&I event being held the weekend of July 14th and 15th 2012. Located on route 501 in the county of Lebanon; the Schaeffer Farm offers 90 acres for a daily afternoon skirmish, along with separate camp sites for the British, French and their Woodland Allies.

Camp set up begins at 12 Noon on Friday July 13th.

A Pot Luck Social Supper will be held on Saturday night at 6:30 P.M. We ask each unit to bring a pot of something to share. Historic Schaeffer Farm will be supplying cooked meat for all participants.

Blanket Trade session beginning at 8 P.M. Saturday evening. (Only items related to the time period may be traded or sold.)

The site will supply firewood, drinking water and bathroom facilities.
(Straw will be supplied for those who request it on their registration form)

There will be speakers talking on period related subjects both days. The public and reenactors are welcome to attend. Vignettes throughout the weekend; like Rifle versus Musket Firing, Children's Musket Drill and the Mustering of Men into Service are all being planned.

The Kittatinny Associators would like to invite anyone wishing to be a part of the vignettes to participate, and if your unit has an idea for a vignette please contact Larry Gorecki at address below.

Please return your unit registration form by regular mail by June 1st, 2012 to: Larry Gorecki, 7556 Lakeside Avenue, Harrisburg, Penna. 17112 or send a copy by e-mail to: benfranklin76@verizon.net.

The Kittatinny Associators and the volunteers at The Historic Schaeffer Farm look forward to having your unit participate at our new French and Indian Event this coming July.
